

FCC Announces Relief From Broadband Access Control is on the Horizon

September 18, 2015

Yesterday, the FCC announced plans to make industry data about the high-speed broadband access market available for public review

Below is a statement from Competify and our partners:

“There is relief on the horizon for the millions throughout the broadband economy suffering from competition loss and the effects of chronic broadband access control. By reviewing the comprehensive data collected by the Federal Communications Commission on this disease, we can move from diagnosis to cure, unleashing lower prices, greater broadband availability and a stronger broadband economy for all Americans.”

Competify Partners for the Cure include: Ad Hoc Telecommunications Users Committee, Broadband Coalition, BT, Competitive Carriers Association (CCA), COMPTel, Computer & Communications Industry Association (CCIA), Engine, Schools, Health and Libraries Coalition (SHLB), Level 3, Public Knowledge, Sprint and XO.
